

Prince Charles Hospital was opened in 1978. It has 434 beds, which comprise of acute beds for integrated medicine, acute surgery, trauma and orthopaedics, paediatrics, obstetrics and gynaecology, special care baby unit and maxillofacial surgery. The hospital has a large Accident and Emergency Department and emergency admissions ward.

It also has 6 cardiac care beds and 7 ITU beds and a general, orthopaedic, oral surgery outpatients department. All the main services are based on site including pathology and x-ray facilities along with physiotherapy, dietetics and occupational therapy services and as an integrated acute and community trust provides both hospital and community with a wide range of services.

FLOOR PLAN OF PRINCE CHARLES HOSPITAL

Please also go to : www.cwmtaf.wales.nhs.uk